

ORLÉANS CONVENTION

A destination for success

Introduction

Orléans Métropole is unquestionably the perfect place to hold a professional event: combining economic influence, scientific excellence and policy centres, the region's rich historic heritage and charming countryside are also major attractions.

Multi-faceted, its hosting and accommodation facilities for business tourism are constantly expanding. Perhaps you are planning a residential seminar for 20 people, or would love to host a first class dinner in the heart of the Sologne or on the banks of the Loiret, or run a conference project for more than 1,000 delegates?

Orléans Métropole is your next destination!

1.

NEARER TO PARIS
THAN ANY OTHER REGIONAL CAPITAL

just 60 minutes from paris and orly airport, orléans also has two train stations and is located at the junction of three major motorways - the a10, a19 and a71. so the city couldn't be easier to get to for visitors.

2.

A BOOMING MICE DESTINATION

Orléans Métropole is very active in the MICE sector and is about to become even more so with the opening of the Orléans Métropole Centre, CO'Met, in 2021.

This innovative facility, specifically designed to cater for large scale events, will combine a conference centre (1,200 seats), an exhibition area (21,000 m) and a sports arena.

Competitiveness

4. SCIENTIFIC AND ECONOMIC INFLUENCE

Orléans Métropole is bursting with talent and boasts not only four major competitiveness clusters but it is also the beating heart of Cosmetic Valley and Nekoe, the innovation through services cluster.

Since June 2016, it has also boasted a new facility specifically set up for the digital sector and innovative young businesses: the Lab'O. A flagship site for French Tech Loire Valley in Orléans, LAB'O will eventually house some 100 startups.

Orléans is just as renowned for being at the cutting edge of scientific research in the fields of health, aerospace and energy transition.

5.

HISTORIC HERITAGE AND BEAUTIFUL
COUNTRYSIDE ON THE BANKS OF THE LOIRE

A city of art and history whose Loire river banks are listed as a UNESCO world heritage site, Orléans has completely restored its old town, ensuring thousands of visitors an experience they will never forget. A garden city, the capital of the Loire also looks after its image as a town in bloom. Orléans Métropole also includes 22 «communes», each with their own character and complementary attributes.
